REPORT OF TRUSTEES OF TOWN LIBRARY.

An examination of the library shows it to be in comparatively good condition. It is reaching such numbers that each addition of books gives greater evidence of the need, if not necessity, of a special room or building for its accommodation. Saying this much may suggest to some lover of the old town, who sees so much to laud on "Old Home Day," how much good it would do us, to donate from his or her accumulations a sum of money requisite to give us a fine library building. Who will speak first?

We have added 47 new books, making the number now catalogued 1,249. Hon. T. W. Lawson donated a gem in the typographical art in his "History of the American Cup." The Sons of the Revolution have given us their "Register" containing names of members in U. S. to date of issue.

The number of patrons of the library is 110; number of books taken out 1,300.

REPORT OF SCHOOL BOARD.

In again presenting the annual report of school work, much that has been said in past years could well be repeated here. As constantly dropping water wears away the hardest stone, so continual reminders of failure in duty, as parents, may eventually correct them.

Failure to appreciate what constant attendance in school means to a child is almost criminal. It is robbery to keep a child from school; the session—the day—the week—so taken is lost to that child, and the fault is with the parent, sickness excepted. Criticism of teachers is another crying evil chargeable to parents; observation confirms the opinion that dislike of teachers on part of pupil is created more by unkind comment than in any other way. Some one has said, “Nothing hears more than a child, and the harder at play the more he hears.” Bear this in mind and in the future if you can say no good of a person be sure to say no ill.

As in the past, teachers who have been faithful to duty—pupil—district—self— have been retained as far as possible. To the deep regret of the board, Mrs. Elliott, Miss Phelps and Miss Currier decided not to continue work after the fall term. We were highly favored in securing for the primary school a worthy successor to Miss Phelps in Miss Collins, who is expected to return. Miss Currier’s successor did not fit the place and it was deemed wise to close the school after four weeks. Miss Dexter in No. 3 has proved her worth and will probably be continued there.

The statistical table will give detailed statement of the work for the year; the roll of honor, the worthy ones.

Repairs will be needed upon houses in Nos. 4 and 5, one or both sides of roof in No. 4, the south side of roof in No. 5 requiring shingling. Some repairs are also needed in the rooms at No. 4.

ROLL OF HONOR.

For three terms—Hazel Gates, Alice Williams, Elsie Felch, Carl French, Nelson French.

For two terms—Karl Huntley, Leon Farley, Frank Murdough, Earl Pitcher, Irene Lewis, Winifred Powers, Clyde French, Clifford Felch, Wesley Felch, Ruth Gee.

For one term—Iva Huntley, Nellie Elkins, Arthur Bartlett, Frank Mosher, Beatrice Herrick, Beatrice Nourse, Mildred Lewis, Katie Winham, Elsie Wright, Phebe Tyler, Marshall Perkins, Charlie Winham, Charlie Murdough, Ernest Rhodes, Earl Rhodes, Perley Champney, Vern Champney, Florence Yardley, Lilla Felch, Elmore Felch.
